WHAT ARE THE SCHOOLS' STRENGTHS AND POINTS TO IMPROVE?

BEST FEATURES OF THE SCHOOL

- The strong educational leadership provided by senior staff members and governors
- Students' excellent speaking and listening skills and how well these skills support their learning in all subjects
- Students' very good understanding of their own and other's cultures
- The modifications made to the curriculum to meet UAE and international expectations
- Excellent partnerships with parents and the community and how these promote and support students' wellbeing and academic achievement

POINTS TO IMPROVE

- Raise standards of teaching so that more lessons are outstanding and that students have ample opportunities to develop their critical thinking skills
- Simplify and increase the effectiveness of school improvement planning - ensure that the monitoring of teaching quality focuses on the progress that students are making

WELLBEING

THE QUALITY OF WELLBEING PROVISION AND OUTCOME IS AT A HIGH LEVEL

In putting in place their agenda to promote wellbeing, the school first listens carefully to the views of staff, students, governors and parents. Very positive partnerships and relationships are developed to make sure that everyone involved in the school is safe and cared for. Leaders and governors have a deep understanding of what knowledge, skills and attributes students need to thrive in the future and this includes elements of wellbeing.

PROGRESS IN KEY SUBJECTS AND INCLUSION

As a result of very strong teaching, the achievement of students in English, in most phases, is outstanding. Improvements in students' progress are seen in Islamic education, mathematics and science, especially in the primary phase. Students' progress in mathematics slows a little in the middle phase. The school is fully inclusive. The head of inclusion is part of the senior leadership team. As a result, the provision for students of determination is strong.

LEADERSHIP AND TEACHING FOR EFFECTIVE LEARNING

Leadership is very strong. Governors and leaders at all levels have been successful in improving the school since the previous inspection, especially in the primary phase. Partnerships with parents and the community are outstanding in the value they add to students' learning. Leaders enthusiastically carry out research and try new ways of working.

In the Kindergarten, teachers provide activities which motivate the children. Across the school, most teachers carefully plan very good lessons to meet the learning needs of their students. However, plans are not always delivered as intended. In the most effective lessons, teachers develop students' understanding and critical thinking skills through skilful questioning.
