WHAT ARE THE SCHOOLS' STRENGTHS AND POINTS TO IMPROVE?

BEST FEATURES OF THE SCHOOL

- Secondary students' outstanding achievements in science and all students' excellent appreciation of Islamic values
- A well-constructed curriculum with an extensive range of options for study
- Secure health and safety arrangements and excellent communication with parents

POINTS TO IMPROVE

- In the secondary phase, improve the teaching of Arabic, English and mathematics to raise students' achievements in these subjects
- Leaders to monitor standards of teaching, learning and assessment quality in line with the descriptors in the UAE School Inspection Framework

WELLBEING

THE QUALITY OF WELLBEING PROVISION AND OUTCOME IS AT A HIGH LEVEL

The school very effectively promotes the well-being of all. Teachers identify students with well-being concerns. Suitably qualified staff members provide appropriate care, guidance and support. Leaders, including the chairman of the board, take positive actions to ensure the well-being of staff. Leaders listen to suggestions and provide rapid solutions to any concerns. The school's vision for well-being has evolved over several years.

PROGRESS IN KEY SUBJECTS AND INCLUSION

The progress of students in Arabic is improving in the middle phase. Science in the secondary phase is a key strength in the school. However, students' achievements in Arabic, English and mathematics in that phase show some decline. Islamic Education is a positive feature, with students performing above curriculum standards. Students of determination are identified through various assessments. Qualified specialists support them during separate sessions. Learning support assistants support a few students of determination in daily lessons.

LEADERSHIP AND TEACHING FOR EFFECTIVE LEARNING

The newly appointed principal works closely with the whole community. Relationships between governors, leaders and teachers are professional, caring and supportive. The principal welcomes the views of parents and promptly addresses their concerns. Staff and students are very respectful of the school's routines and requirements. The premises and facilities are safe. Many areas are well suited to extra-curricular activities.

Teaching is improving in the middle phase. The best teaching is seen in secondary science. The teaching of Arabic, English and mathematics in the secondary phase needs to take into account the potential of a wider range of very able and talented students. Students enjoy learning, are motivated and participate willingly. Their skills as independent learners are a strong and positive feature of the school.
