

Biography

Dr. Warren Fox

Dr. Warren Fox is Executive Director of the Higher Education for the Dubai Knowledge and Human Development Authority in the United Arab Emirates. Previously he was Executive Director of the Office of Higher Education, Policy & Planning, for the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research of the United Arab Emirates. He also serves on the School Board for the American Community School.

Dr. Fox served as Scholar in Residence, University of California at Berkeley, with the Center for Studies in Higher Education, focusing on higher education administration, state-level policy and finance, and best practices for accountability.

He was the longest serving Executive Director of California's planning and coordinating agency for higher education - the California Postsecondary Education Commission. The Commission is responsible to the executive and legislative branches for updating the state-wide plan for higher education and for recommendations on budget, capital outlay, academic programs, and other issues. He also served as convener of the California Education Roundtable composed of California's university system leaders.

Dr. Fox is a past President of SHEEO (the State Higher Education Executive Officers national association), and former Chair of the National Postsecondary Education Cooperative for the U.S. Department of Education and NCES. He is also a former Chairman of the National Forum of System Chief Academic Officers and former member of the WICHE Executive Committee.

Dr. Fox received his B.A. in Political Science from the University of California at Berkeley, and his Ph.D. from the University of Southern California School of Policy Planning and Development.